Portion control
Choose the portion size for your evening meal. It can be adjusted based on how you feel the next day to see what works best for you.

Pick your protein
Choose a protein source that fits your routine. Protein is essential for building muscle and maintaining metabolism. Proper protein intake is key to staying on track.

Fill up
Fill up on healthy fats, fiber, and vegetables. These nutrients help you feel full and satisfied, reducing the temptation to snack on unhealthy foods.
