HEALTH AND WELLNESS IN IRELAND

- The fitness trend amongst Irish consumers continues to drive growth within sports nutrition¹.
- Attitudes toward sports nutrition continue to evolve with these products no longer seen as just for bodybuilders or serious athletes¹.
- Ireland is in the depths of an obesity crisis with 37% of the population overweight and a further 15% being obese².

DIRECT SELLING IN IRELAND

- Overall, consumers are expected to have more disposable income to spend on nonessential products such as beauty and personal care and are also going to look after themselves more due to a growing interest in health and wellness³.
- Social media is an important tool for direct sellers in Ireland with recommendations offered through stories shared on platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and Snapchat³.
- Demand for health and wellness products is strong, especially in the area of food supplements and meal replacement products³.

LAUNCH MESSAGE GUIDELINES

Do's & Don'ts When Sharing News About the Launch

We are glad that teams are spreading the word on social media and through their networks; however, we want to emphasise how important it is that everyone is using the proper messaging so as not to confuse or mislead our Customers.

WHAT TO SAY IN PUBLIC FACING MESSAGES

Examples of what you SHOULD use:

- Ireland – Coming Soon! Want details? Call me!
- I'm so excited that the company I'm aligned with just announced that it will be launching in Ireland soon! Message me for details!
- Exciting news! Isagenix is coming to Ireland! Contact me to learn more.
- Count down to Ireland launch... Contact me to learn more about the upcoming "Isagenix Invasion."

Examples of what you should NOT use:

- I just enrolled 3 new Customers in Ireland! Are you ready to join?
- Irish friends, are you ready to sign up? I have all the details. Join today!
- Taking new Customer sign-ups right NOW for Ireland.
- Sign up now for Isagenix in Ireland and get a free Membership.
- Registering now for Isagenix Ireland! Don't miss out on this opportunity.

FINALLY, A FEW VERY IMPORTANT "DON'TS"

- Please don't create marketing materials or videos (including internal team training materials) or hand out marketing materials from the U.S. or any other country. Products and promotions vary by country, and we need to manage expectations for the launch. Presentations and videos may not be made until we publish the official Ireland Isagenix Compensation Plan, product listing and claims.
- In line with current advertising policies, do not use the Isagenix name or any other Isagenix trademark in any domain name, paid search advertising, social media profile or group name, or place social media ad campaigns targeted to residents.
- Please do not promote Isagenix in public forums or groups. (Note: this does not apply to posts on your personal social media profile, which are only visible to your current social media contacts.)
- You may hold a meeting for your personal contacts; however, you may not publicly discuss or promote the meeting through any medium, including your personal social media account or closed social media group.

Check IsaFYI.com/International to stay current on additional products and promotions that may become available.

If you have any questions, please contact compliance at ComplianceEU@IsagenixCorp.com or email Customer Service. They, along with the entire Isagenix team, are here to help you be successful!
